TOURNAMENT FOR ST. ALBANS.

Tennis Players Want State Meet for 1905 Held There.

Injuries Are Very Serious.

It is feared the injuries Mrs. Daniel Nichols of Hardwick received in an automobile accident a few days ago are more serious than was at first thought.

The accident occurred in front of the Congregational church. Mrs. L. S. Robie, accompanied by Mrs. M. O. Nichols and Mrs. Thomas, were out driving, when they met Mr. and Mrs. Gove riding in their automobile. Mrs. Robie's horse became frightened and started up the bank in front of the Catholic church, overturning the surrey and throwing the occupants into the street. Mrs. Nichols and Mrs. Thomas were injured, but Mrs. Robie escaped with but few bruises. Mrs. Nichols' right wrist and one rib were broken and it is feared that she is injured internally. On account of the advanced age and a bad heart trouble her case causes some anxiety to her friends.
